Hi, everyone!

It looks like Donald and the nephews are about to make a snappy exit! Do you know how to tell a crocodile from an alligator? Well, let me tell you. Unlike the alligator, when the crocodile has its mouth shut, a large tooth each side of the lower jaw sticks out. Okay? So if you should come across one, have a look at his teeth to see if he's a crocodile or an alligator.....then RUN for it!

WHEELIE TRICKY!

The five-letter words forming the spokes read from the outside inwards. Answers are at the bottom of the page.*

This Mummy's No Dummy

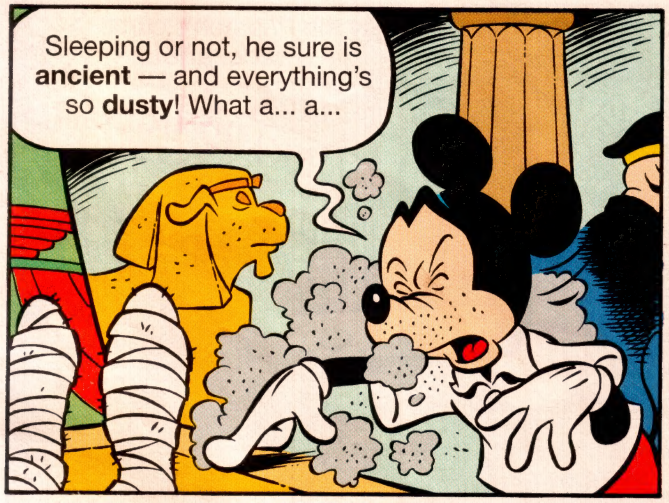
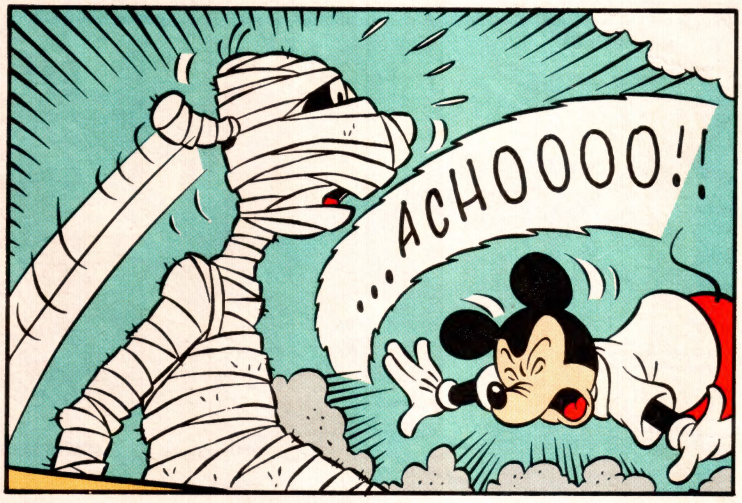
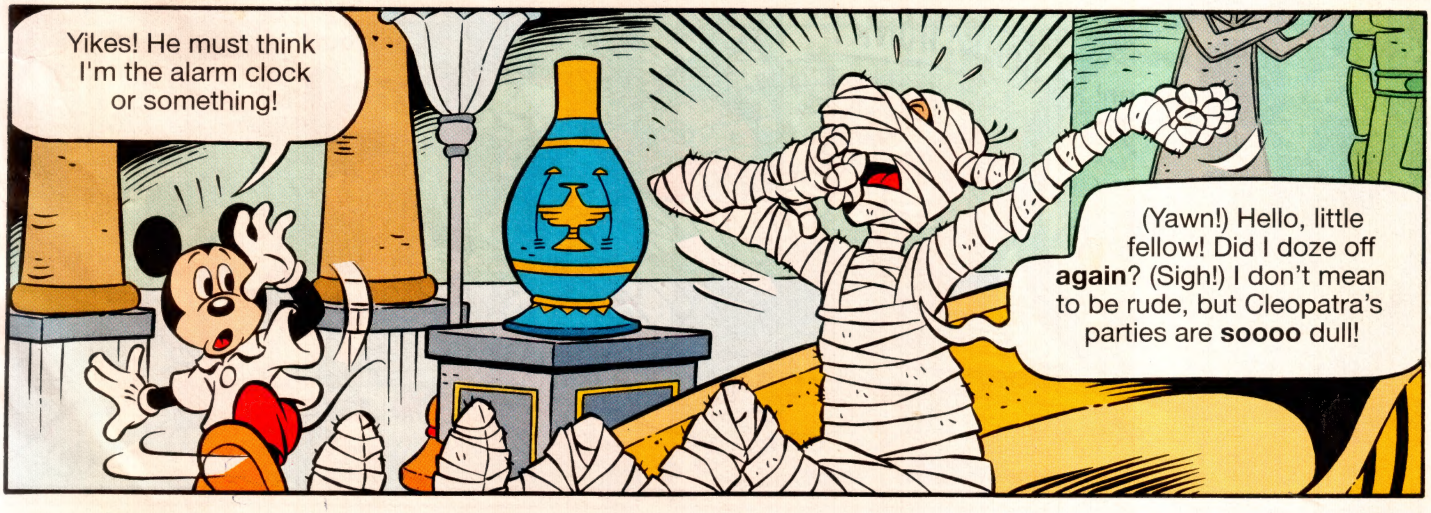
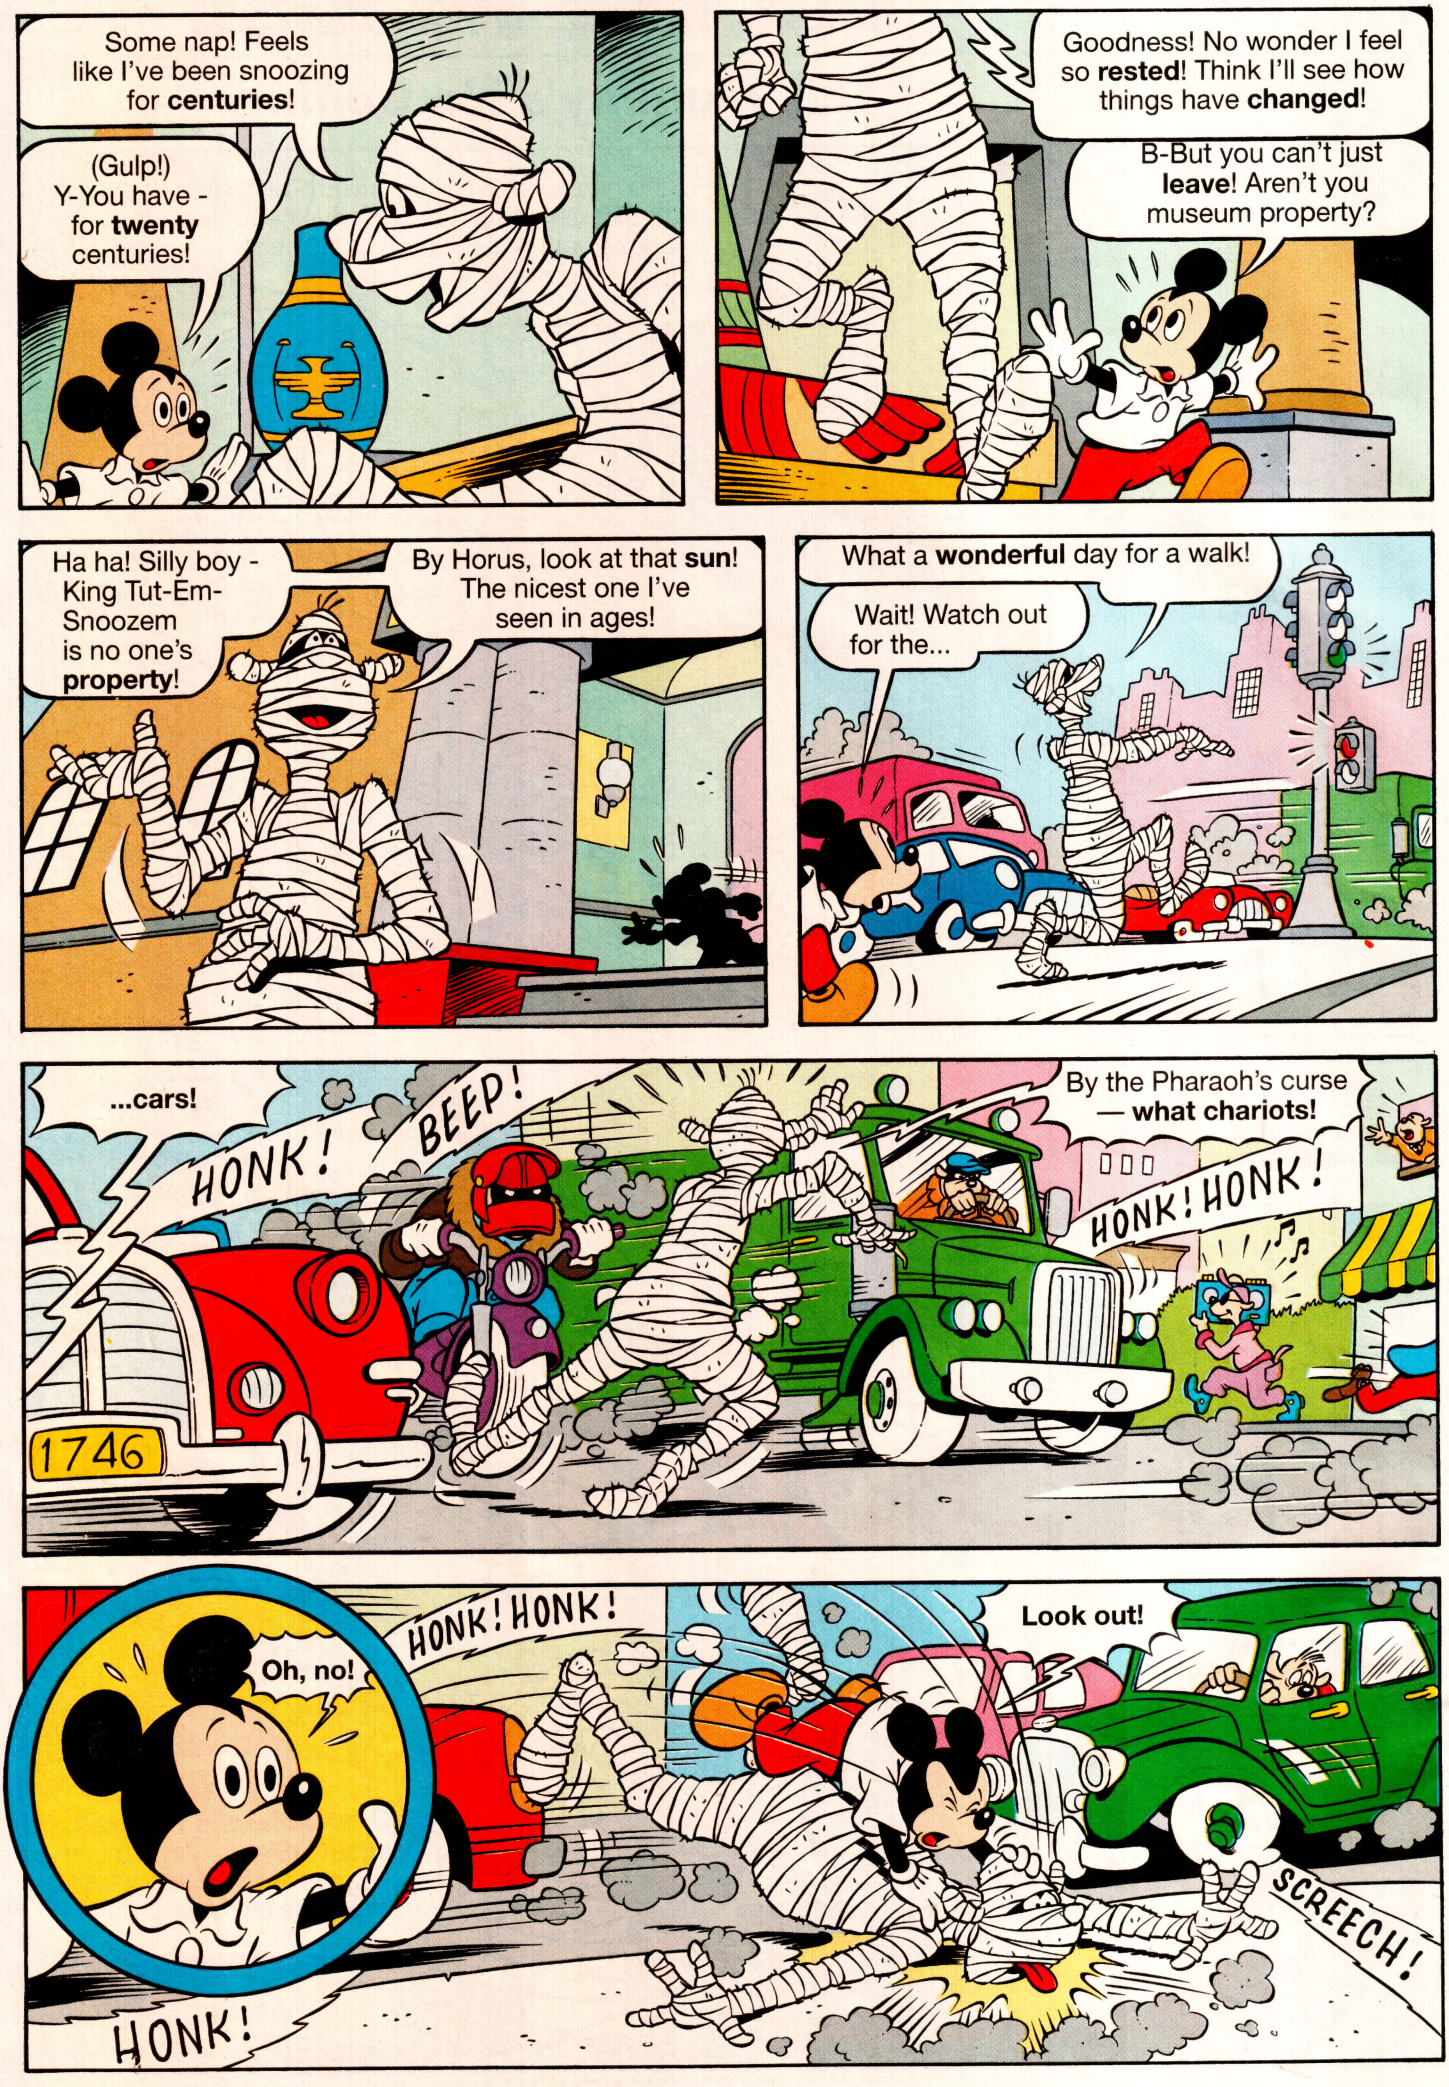
It's Saturday, and Mickey is taking time out to soak up some culture at the Duckburg Museum of Really Old Stuff!
...and here we have King Tut-Em-Snoozem, the Sleeping King! Legend says he took a snooze during a dull party 2000 years ago... and never woke up!
Hah! Who'd believe a story like that?
GENUINE EGYPTIAN MUMMY HANDS OFF
D93232







Yikes! He must think I'm the alarm clock or something!
(Yawn!) Hello, little fellow! Did I doze off again? (Sigh!) I don't mean to be rude, but Cleopatra's parties are soooo dull!



Some nap! Feels like I've been snoozing for centuries!
(Gulp!) Y-You have - for twenty centuries!
Goodness! No wonder I feel so rested! Think I'll see how things have changed!
B-But you can't just leave! Aren't you museum property?
Ha ha! Silly boy - King Tut-Em-Snoozem is no one's property!
By Horus, look at that sun! The nicest one I've seen in ages!
What a wonderful day for a walk!
Wait! Watch out for the...
...cars!
HONK!
BEEP!
1746
By the Pharaoh's curse — what chariots!
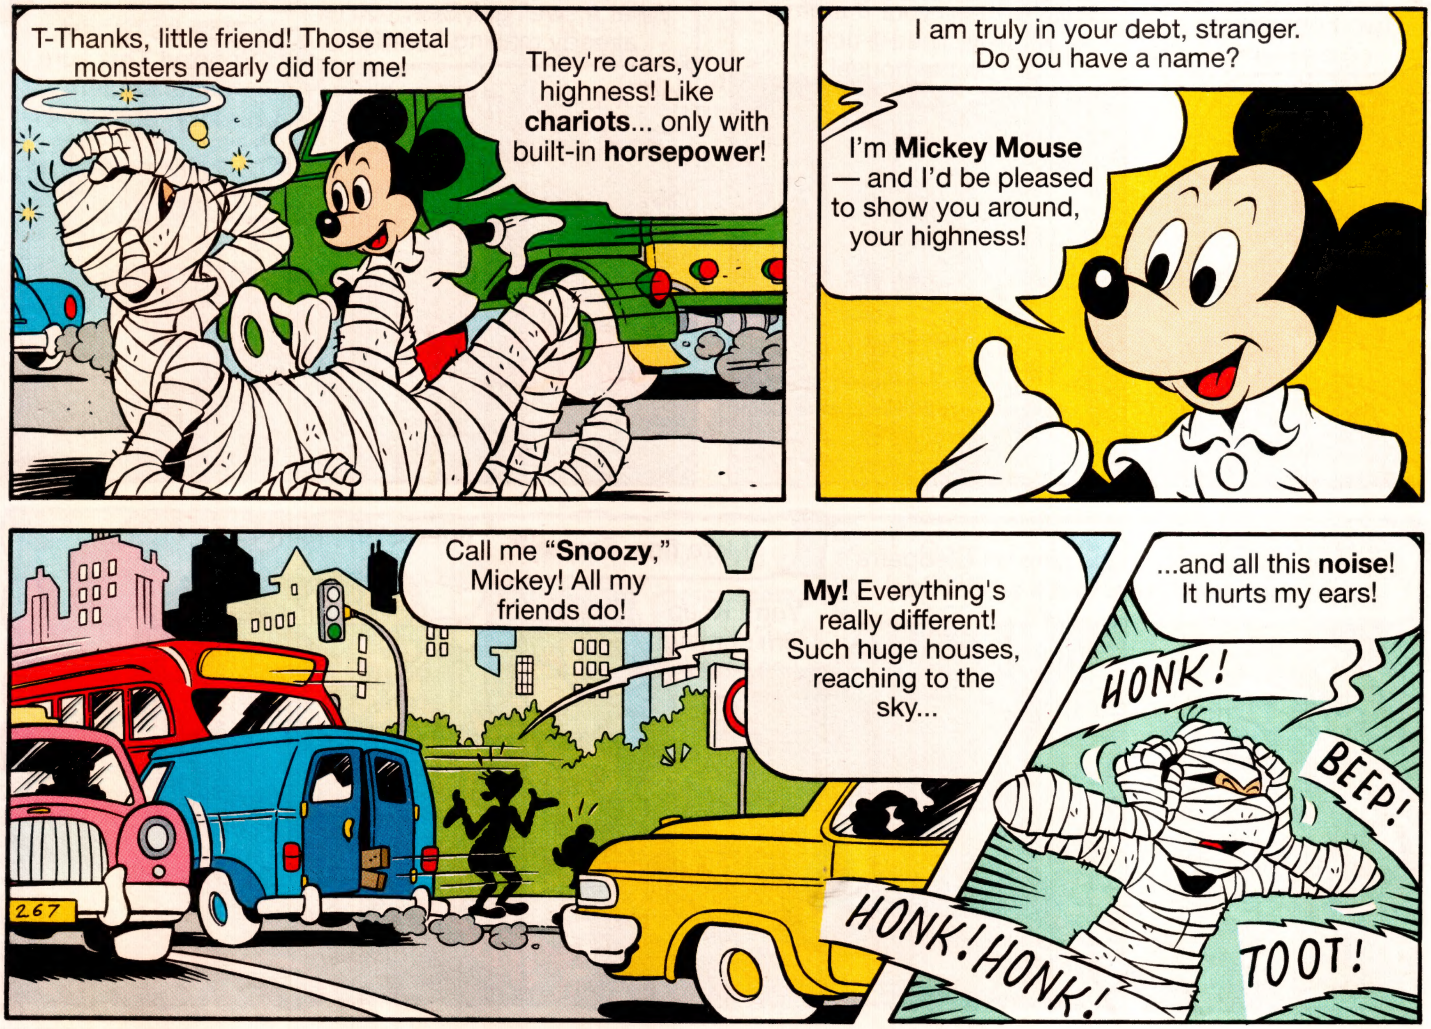
HONK! HONK!
Oh, no!
HONK! HONK!
Look out!
HONK!
SCREECH!



T-Thanks, little friend! Those metal monsters nearly did for me!
They're cars, your highness! Like chariots... only with built-in horsepower!
I am truly in your debt, stranger. Do you have a name?
I'm Mickey Mouse — and I'd be pleased to show you around, your highness!
Call me "Snoozy," Mickey! All my friends do!
My! Everything's really different! Such huge houses, reaching to the sky...
...and all this noise! It hurts my ears!
HONK!
BEEP!
HONK! HONK!
TOOT!
267
Pee-yew! What's that awful smell?
DUCKBURG CHEMICAL WORKS
Well, uh...that's industrial progress!
I don't much like your modern world, Mickey! Maybe I'd better go back to sleep....
Hold th' phone, pharaoh! This is a great world, once you get used to it! C'mon, I'll show you!
Well, I suppose a quick tour wouldn't hurt.
First stop, Duckburg Park! Plenty of stuff here you'll never find in musty ol' Egypt...
Eeeek!
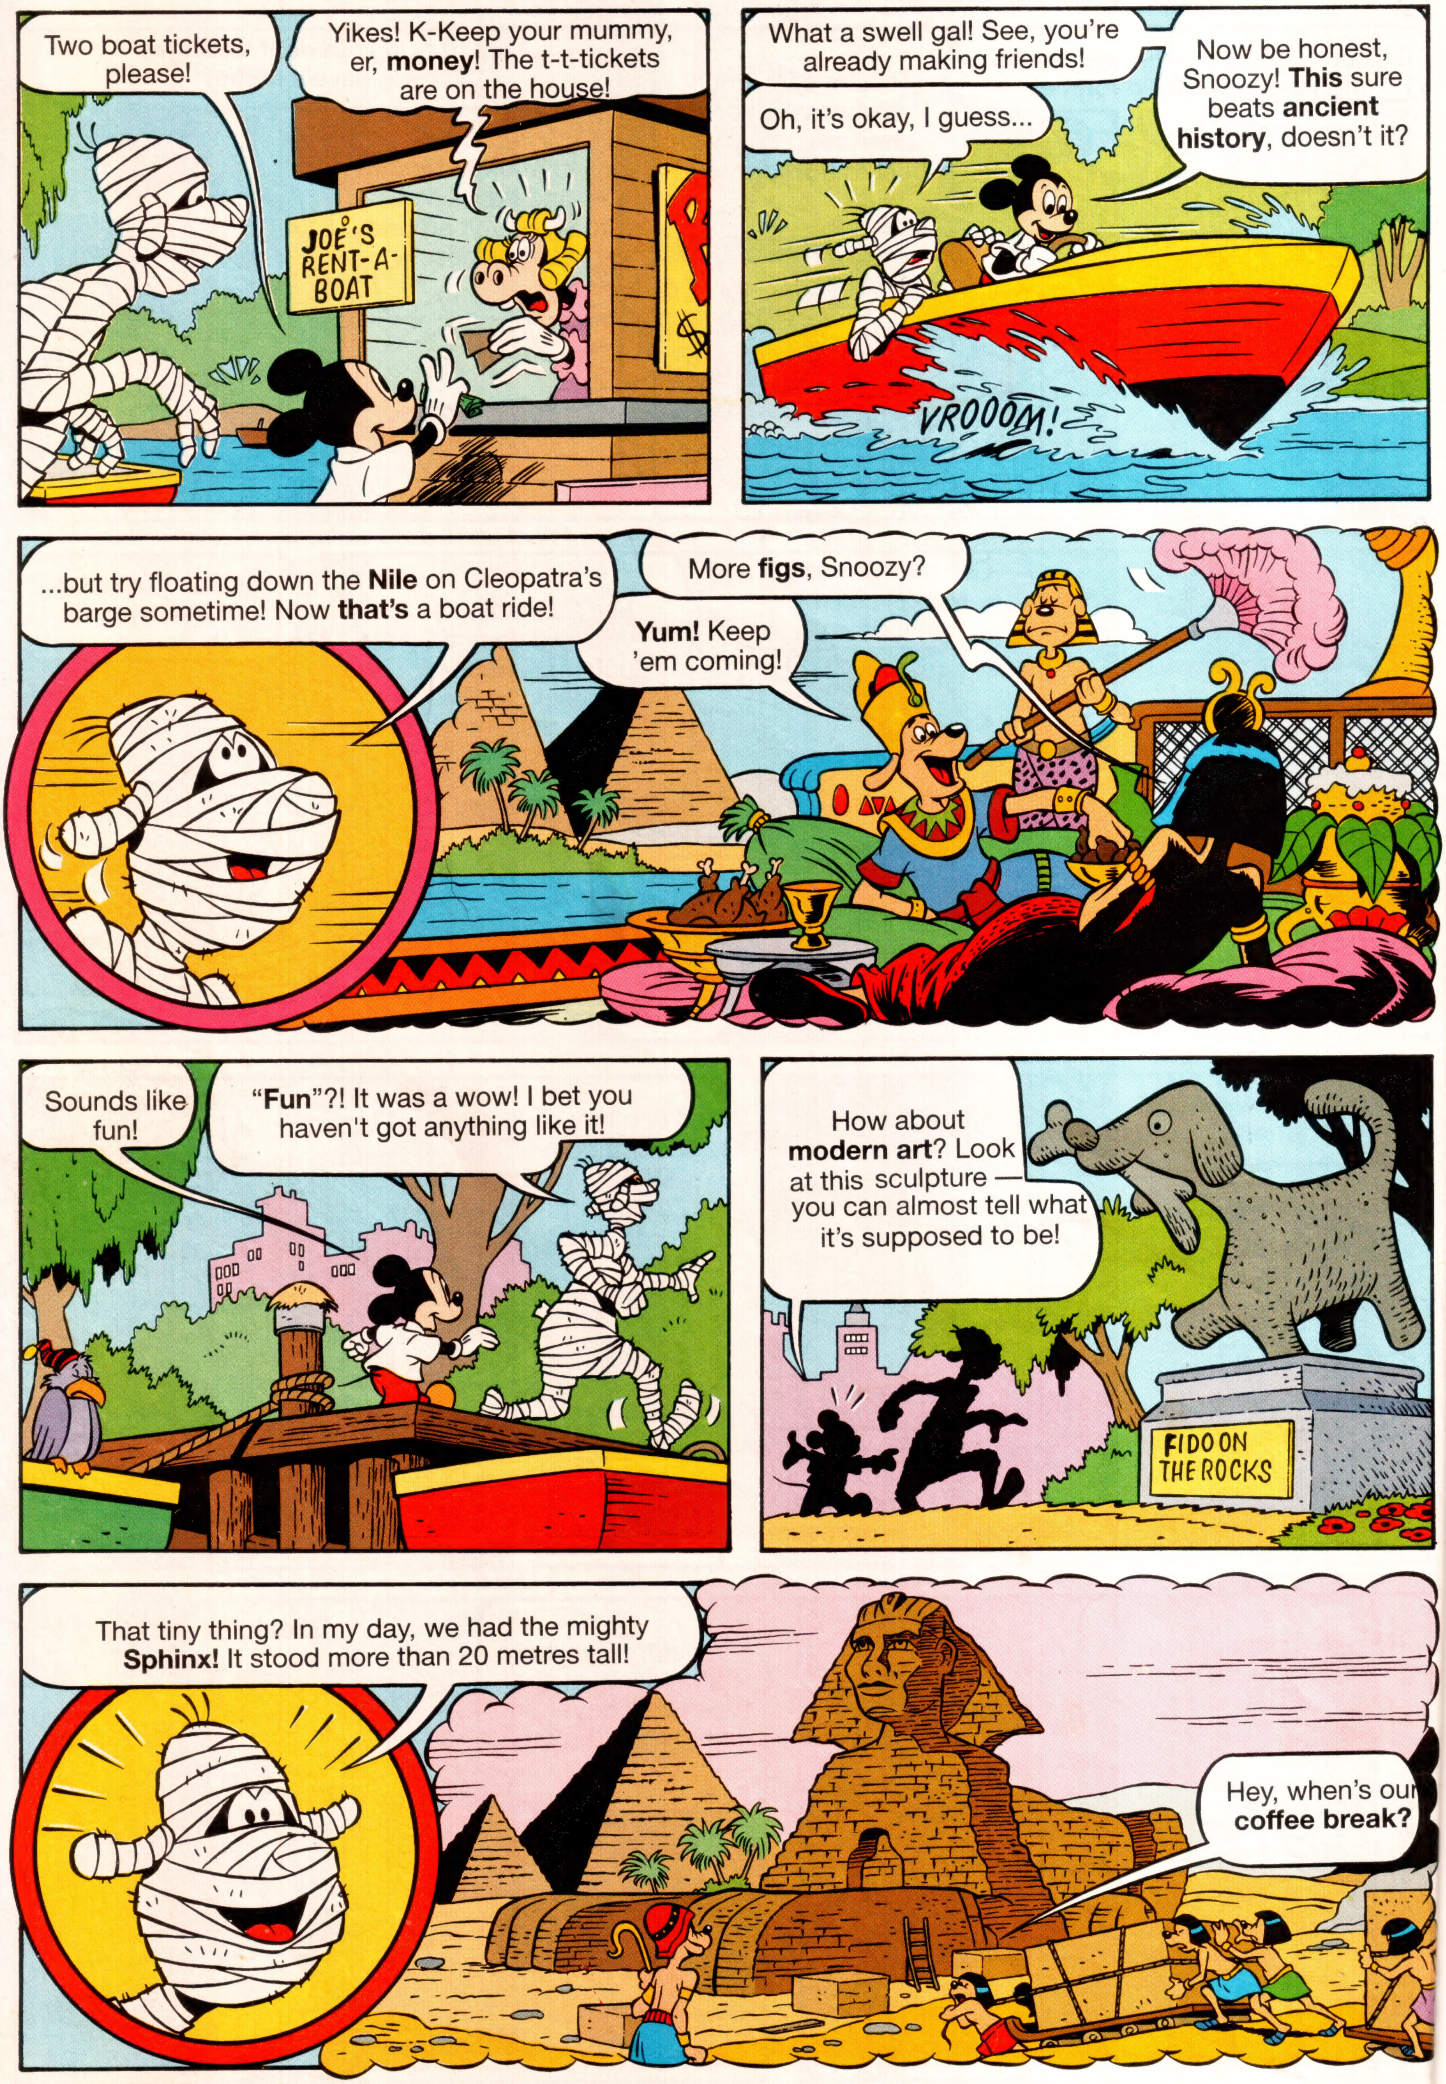
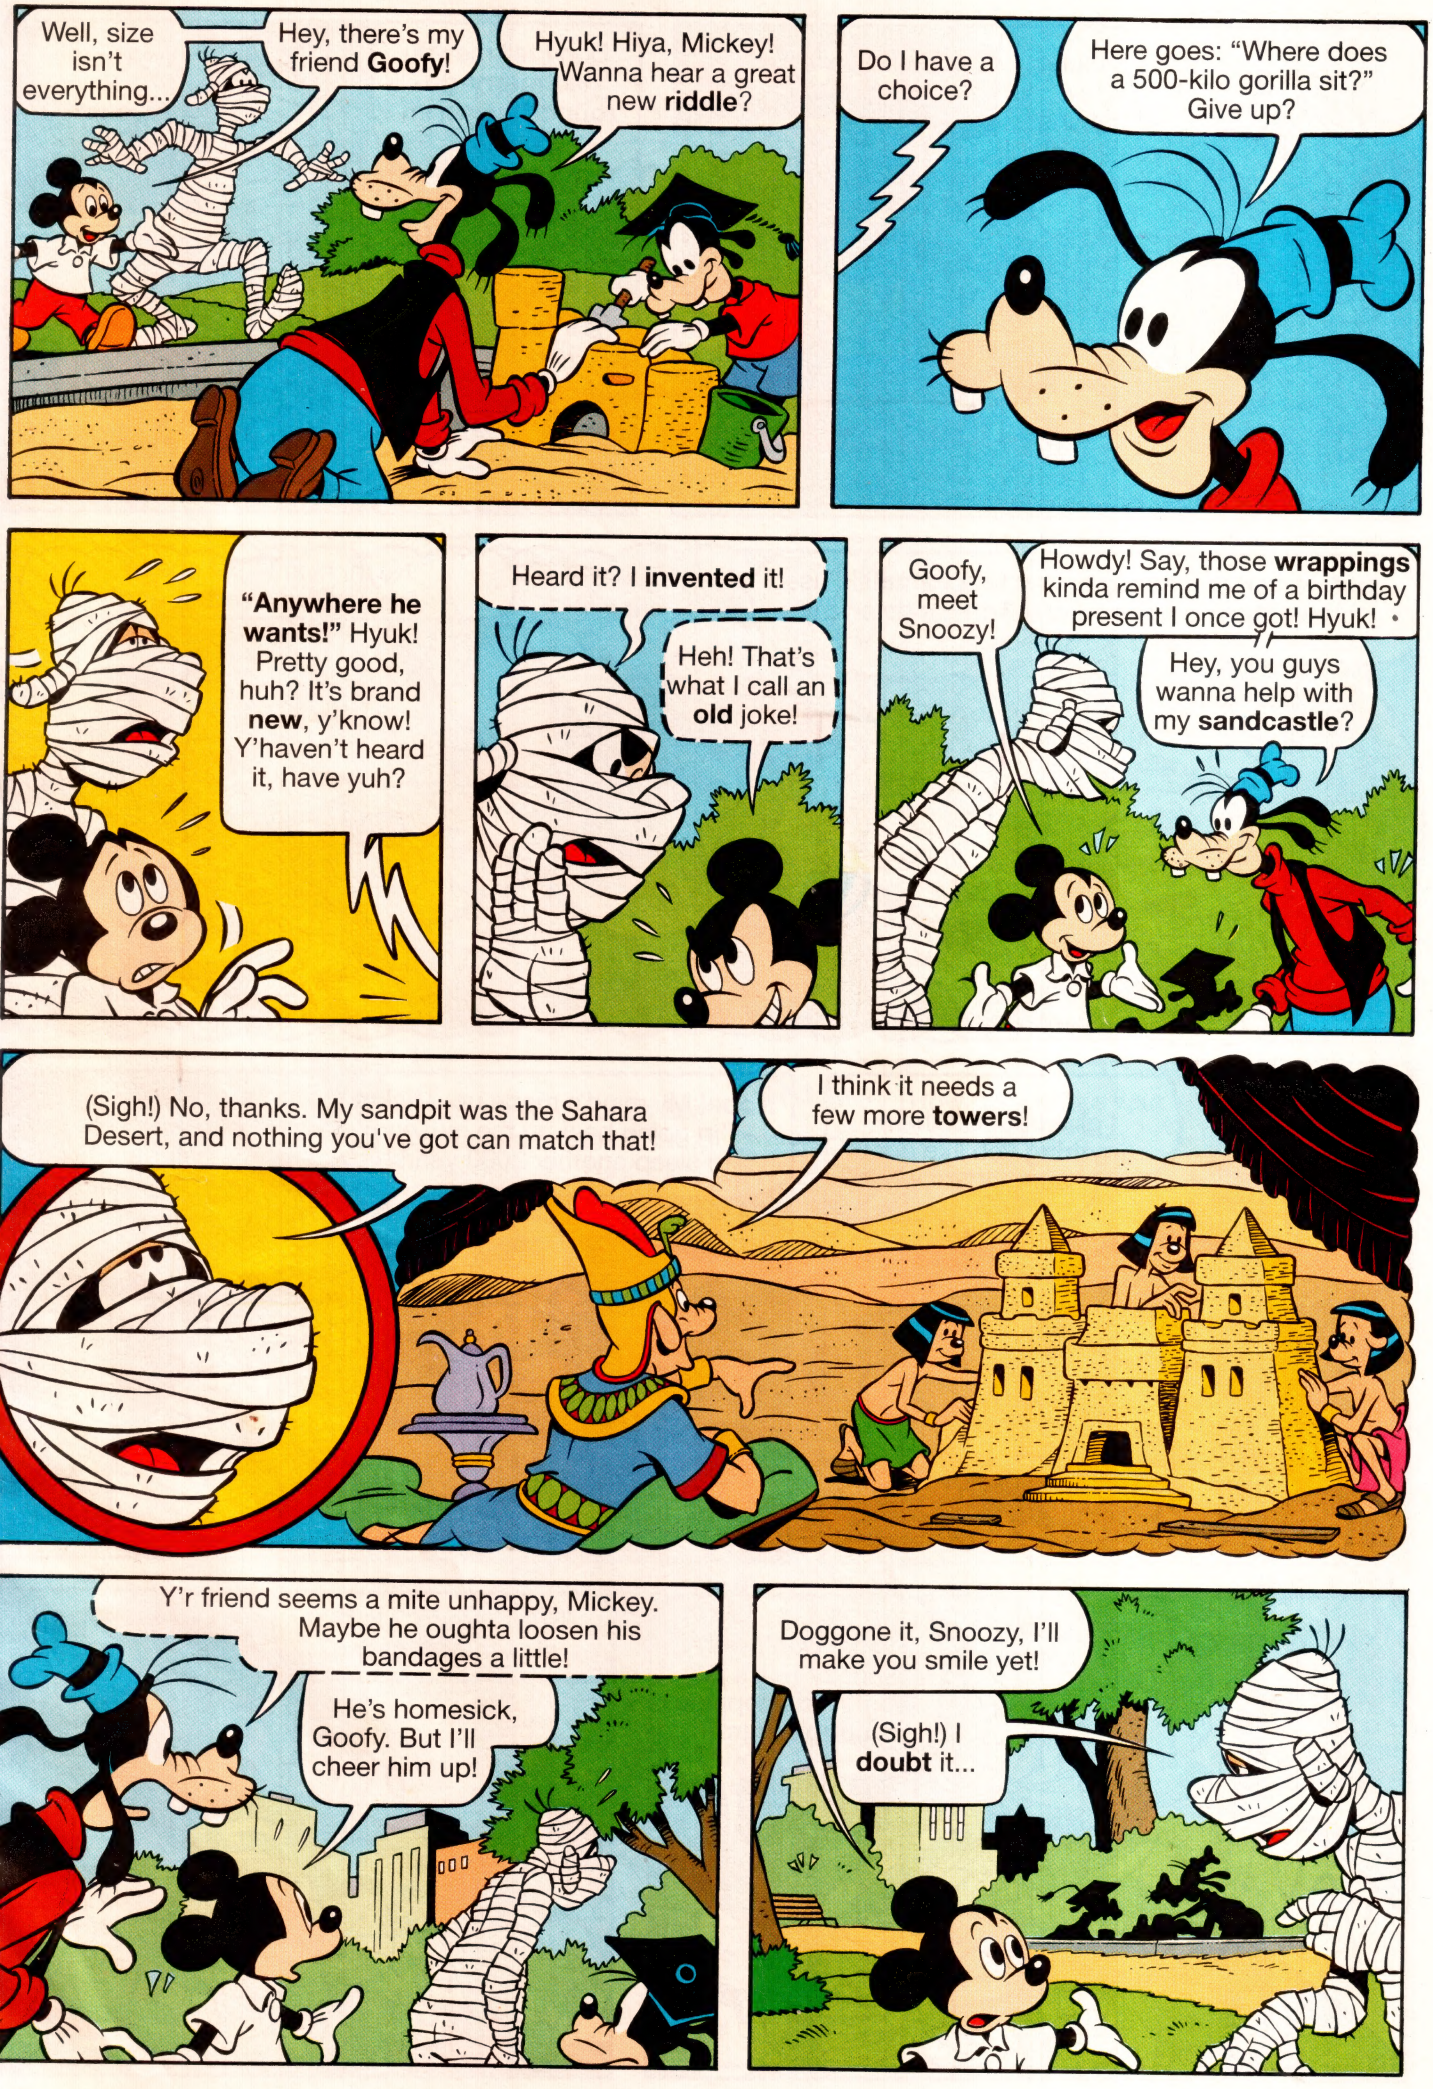
BOATS FOR RENT



Two boat tickets, please!
Yikes! K-Keep your mummy, er, money! The t-t-tickets are on the house!
JOE'S RENT-A-BOAT
What a swell gal! See, you're already making friends!
Oh, it's okay, I guess...
Now be honest, Snoozy! This sure beats ancient history, doesn't it?
VROOOM!
...but try floating down the Nile on Cleopatra's barge sometime! Now that's a boat ride!
More figs, Snoozy?
Yum! Keep 'em coming!
Sounds like fun!
"Fun"?! It was a wow! I bet you haven't got anything like it!
How about modern art? Look at this sculpture — you can almost tell what it's supposed to be!
FIDO ON THE ROCKS
That tiny thing? In my day, we had the mighty Sphinx! It stood more than 20 metres tall!
Hey, when's our coffee break?



Well, size isn't everything...
Hey, there's my friend Goofy!
Hyuk! Hiya, Mickey! Wanna hear a great new riddle?
Do I have a choice?
Here goes: "Where does a 500-kilo gorilla sit?" Give up?
"Anywhere he wants!" Hyuk! Pretty good, huh? It's brand new, y'know! Y'haven't heard it, have yuh?
Heard it? I invented it!
Heh! That's what I call an old joke!
Goofy, meet Snoozy!
Howdy! Say, those wrappings kinda remind me of a birthday present I once got! Hyuk!
Hey, you guys wanna help with my sandcastle?
(Sigh!) No, thanks. My sandpit was the Sahara Desert, and nothing you've got can match that!
I think it needs a few more towers!
Y'r friend seems a mite unhappy, Mickey. Maybe he oughta loosen his bandages a little!
He's homesick, Goofy. But I'll cheer him up!
Doggone it, Snoozy, I'll make you smile yet!
(Sigh!) I doubt it...

Wait a minute! I know something you'll like! Follow me, pal!
Don't tell me you had merry-go-rounds in ancient Egypt?!
Well, no...
...but we had something better: real camels! I used to love zipping across the desert sands on my dashing dromedary!
Nyah, nyah! Last one to the oasis is a rotten egg!
I give up! Isn't there anything you like about our modern world?
Nope! My mind's made up, Mickey - I'm going back to the museum to sleep another 2000 years!
Gee...
Yow! Where did that explosion come from? Let's get out of here!
POP!
Ha ha! Don't worry, Snoozy — it's just some kids popping bubble gum!
"Bubble gum"? Is that what they're eating?
POP!

You don't eat bubble gum. You chew it!
Here, try some!
Yum! Tasty!
Okay, first you chew until the gum is nice and mushy...
...then you blow it into a bubble...
...until it pops! That's the ticket!
POP!
POP!
POP!
POP! POP!
Fantastic! We never had anything like this in ancient Egypt!
The heck with sleeping! I'd rather stay and pop bubbles!
That's swell, Snoozy! But you'll need to earn a living somehow... Hey! I've got it!
And so...
How do you like your new job, Snoozy?
Great! Business is up, and I just got a raise! Now I can buy all the bubble gum I want!
ACCIDENT-PRONE? DON'T BE A DUMMY. BUY GETALIFE INSURANCE... BEFORE YOU WIND UP LIKE ME!

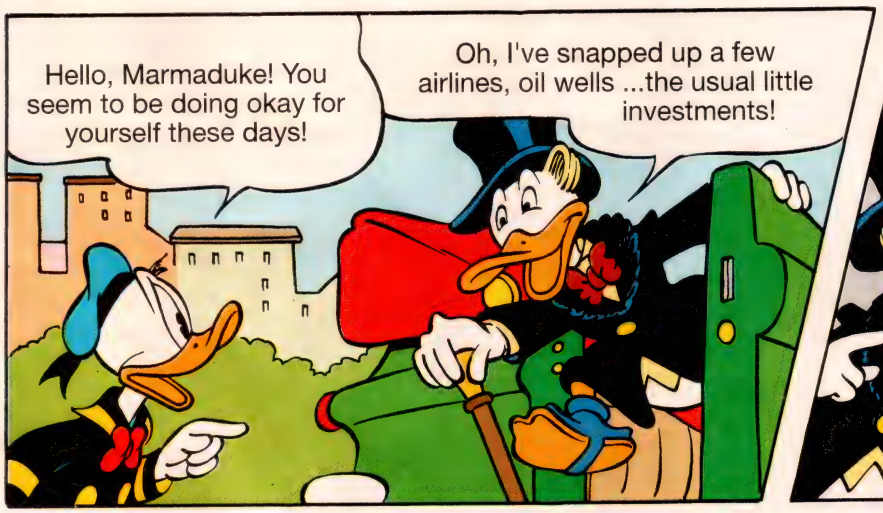
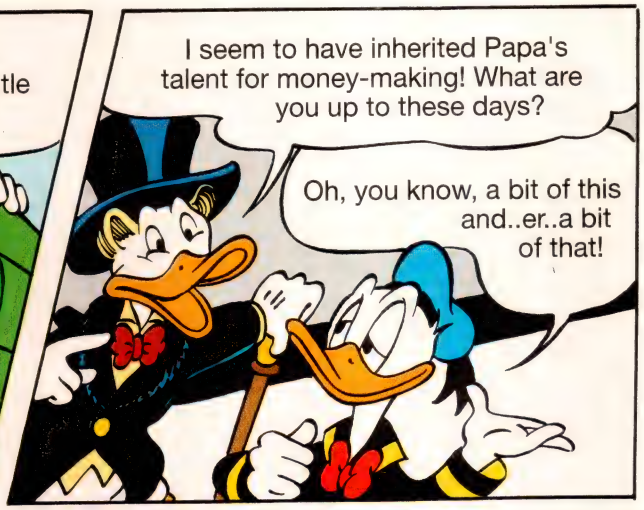
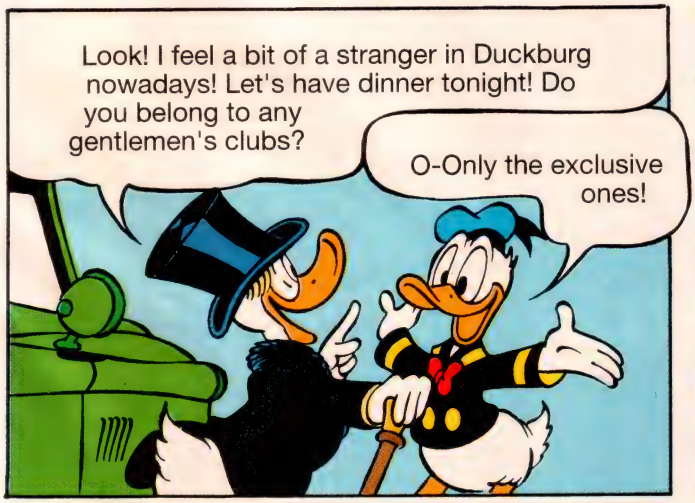
Donald Duck! Is that really you? I haven't seen you since we were at school! You weren't up this early then!
DUCKBURG CLASSIC CARS
17567
(Groan!) It looks like Marmaduke 'The Snob' Sibley is back in town!
D93160



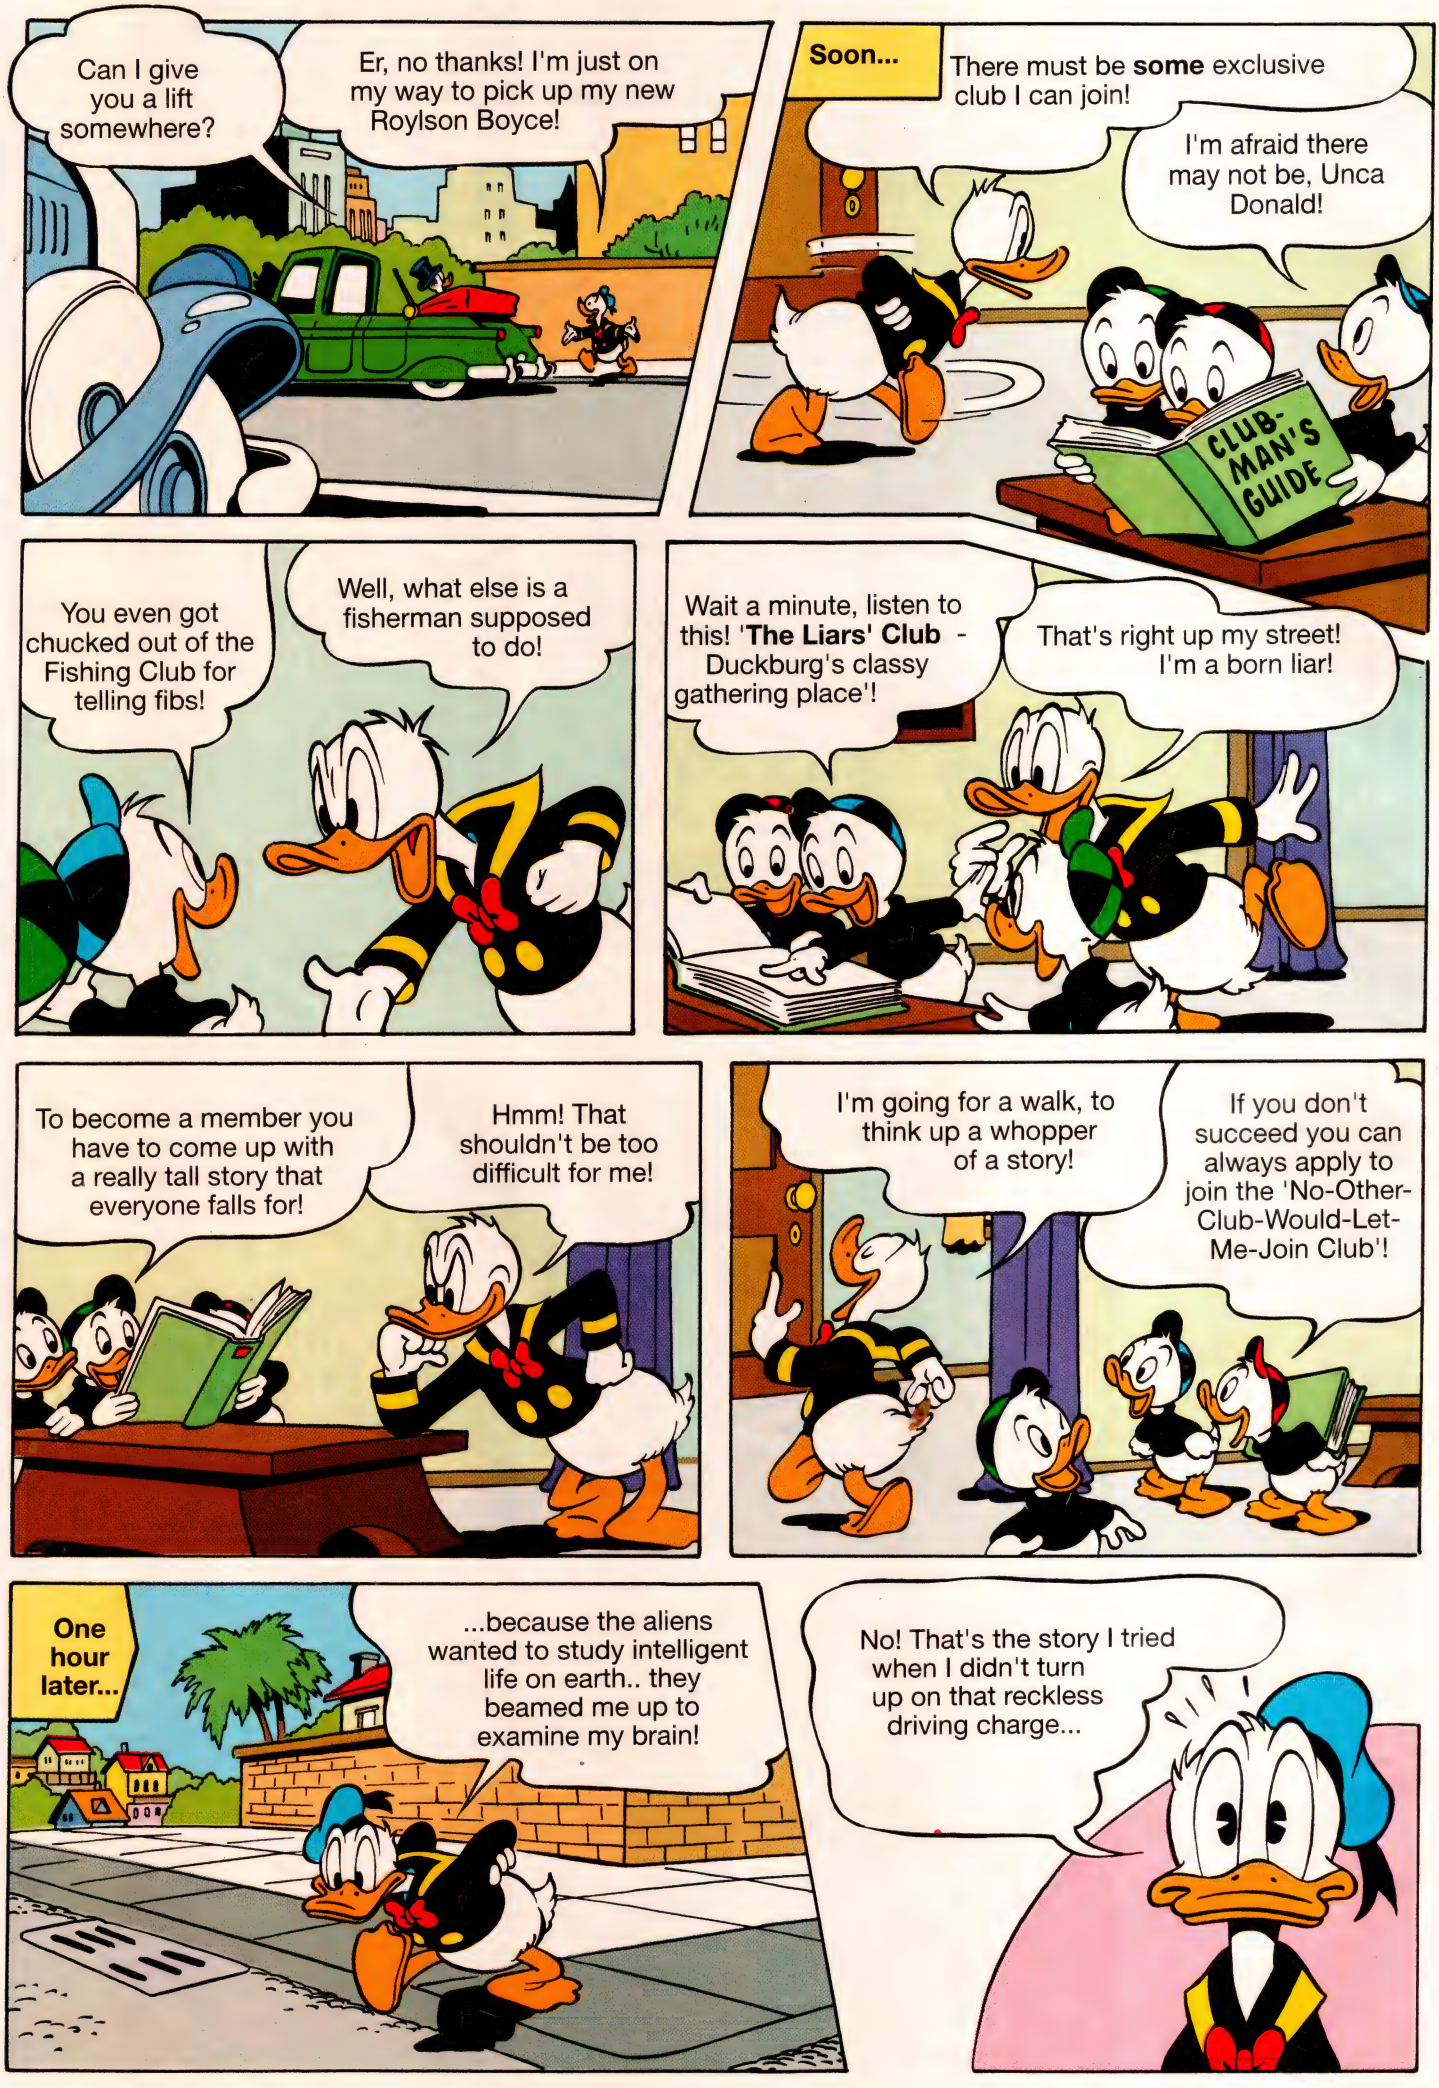
Hello, Marmaduke! You seem to be doing okay for yourself these days!
Oh, I've snapped up a few airlines, oil wells ...the usual little investments!



I seem to have inherited Papa's talent for money-making! What are you up to these days?
Oh, you know, a bit of this and..er..a bit of that!



Look! I feel a bit of a stranger in Duckburg nowadays! Let's have dinner tonight! Do you belong to any gentlemen's clubs?
O-Only the exclusive ones!



Can I give you a lift somewhere?
Er, no thanks! I'm just on my way to pick up my new Roylson Boyce!
Soon...
There must be some exclusive club I can join!
I'm afraid there may not be, Unca Donald!
CLUB-MAN'S GUIDE
You even got chucked out of the Fishing Club for telling fibs!
Well, what else is a fisherman supposed to do!
Wait a minute, listen to this! 'The Liars' Club - Duckburg's classy gathering place'!
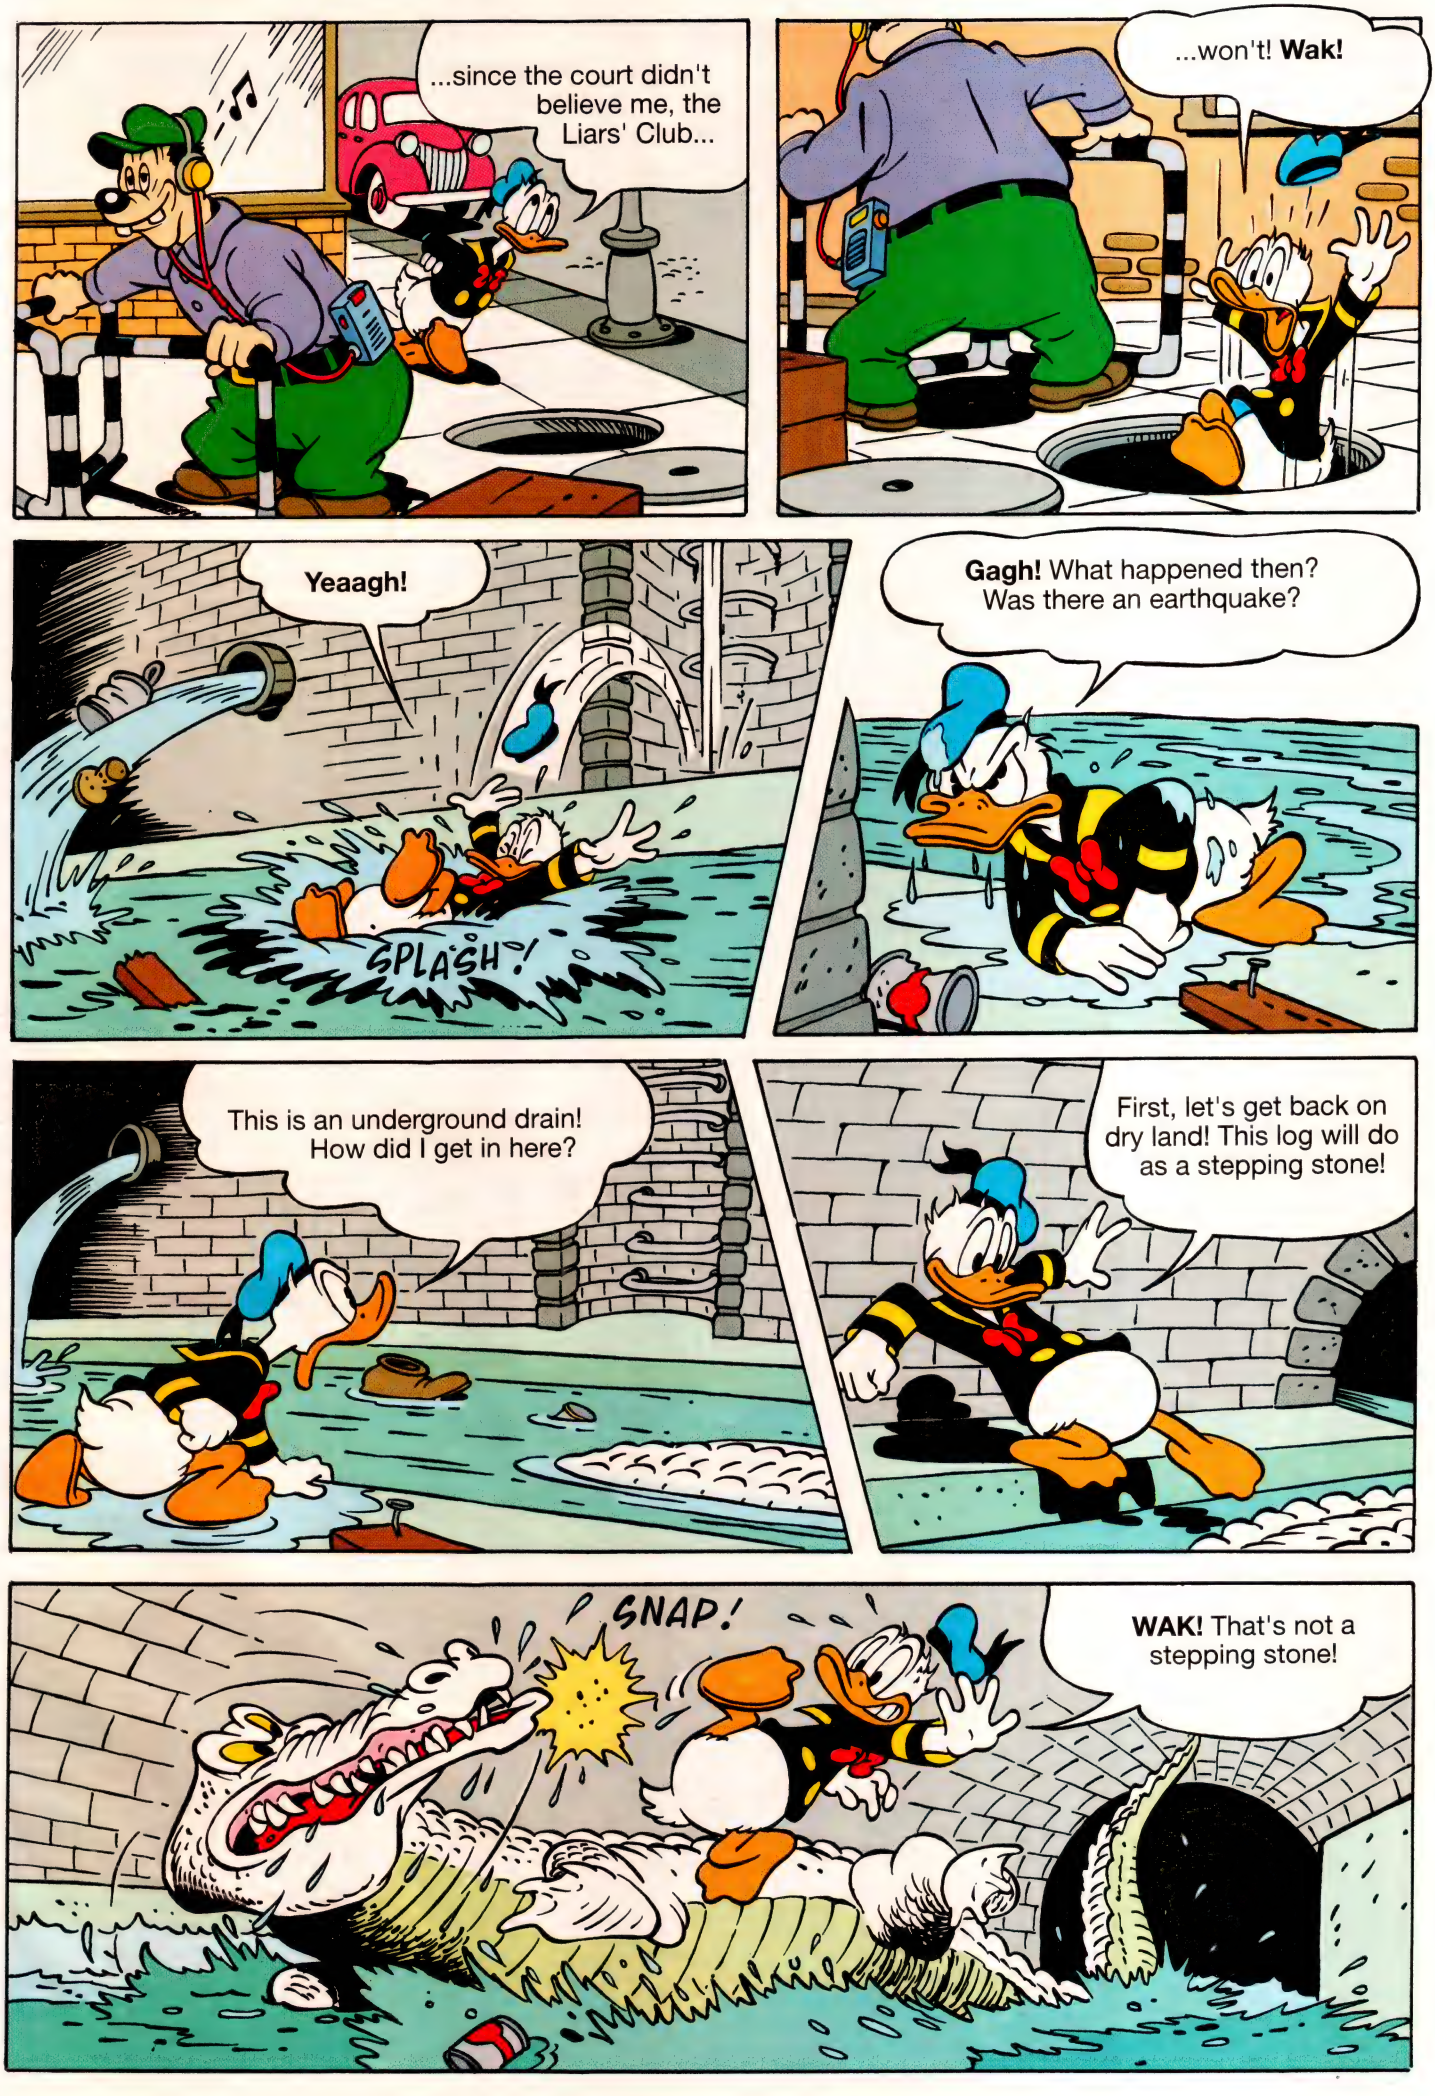
That's right up my street! I'm a born liar!
To become a member you have to come up with a really tall story that everyone falls for!
Hmm! That shouldn't be too difficult for me!
I'm going for a walk, to think up a whopper of a story!
If you don't succeed you can always apply to join the 'No-Other-Club-Would-Let-Me-Join Club'!
One hour later...
...because the aliens wanted to study intelligent life on earth.. they beamed me up to examine my brain!
No! That's the story I tried when I didn't turn up on that reckless driving charge...



...since the court didn't believe me, the Liars' Club...
...won't! Wak!
Yeaagh!
SPLASH!
Gagh! What happened then? Was there an earthquake?
This is an underground drain! How did I get in here?
First, let's get back on dry land! This log will do as a stepping stone!
SNAP!
WAK! That's not a stepping stone!

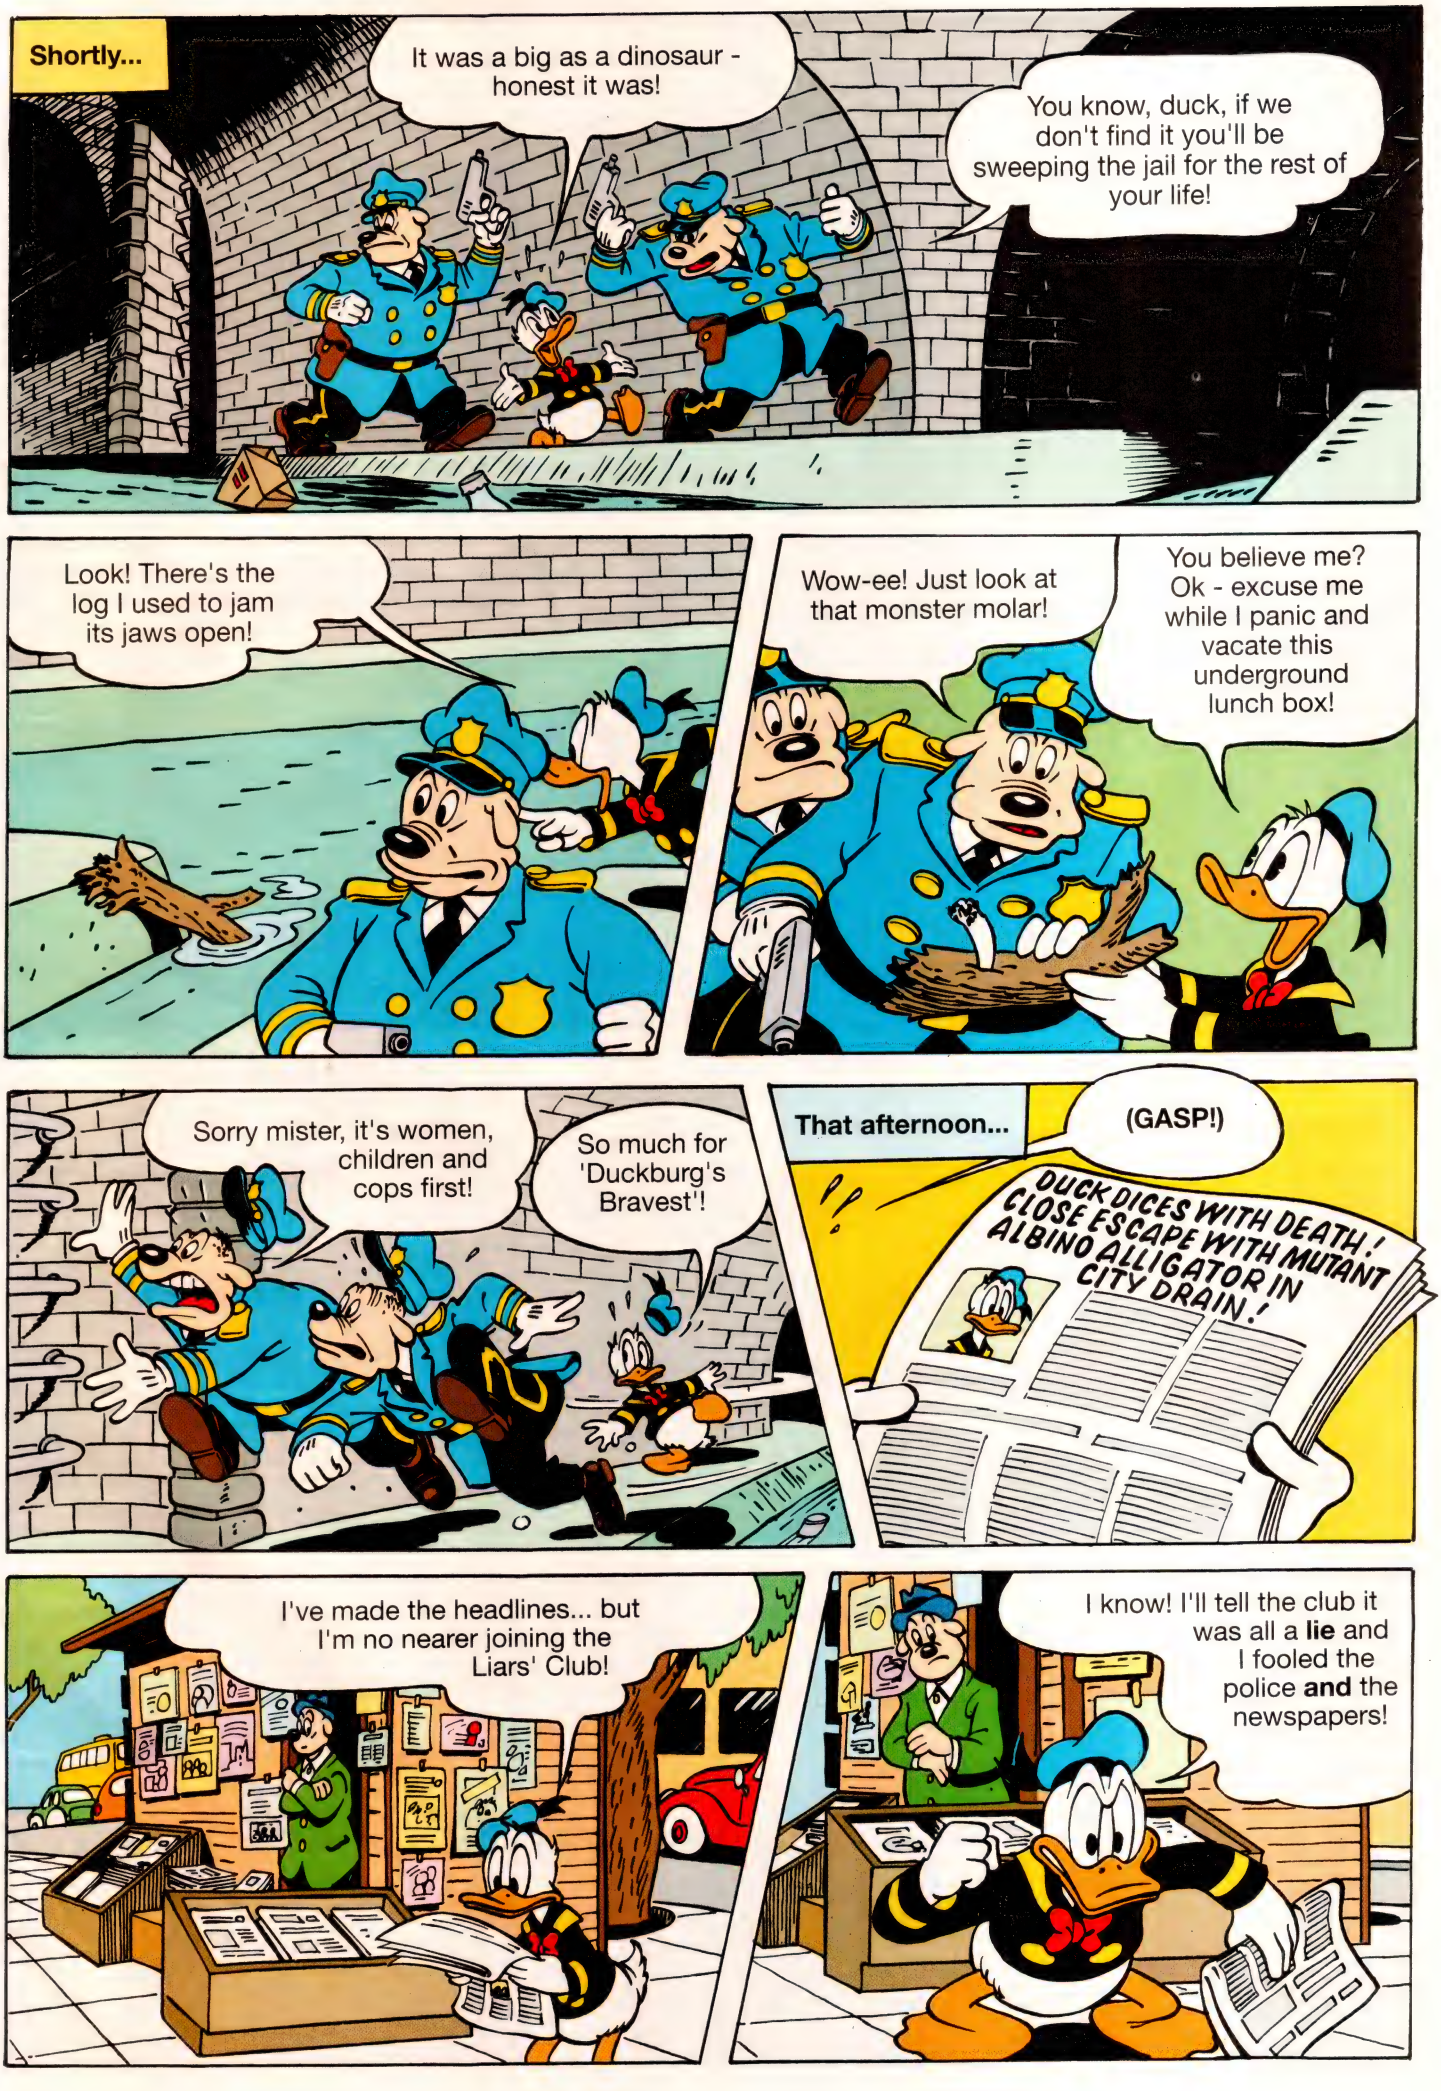
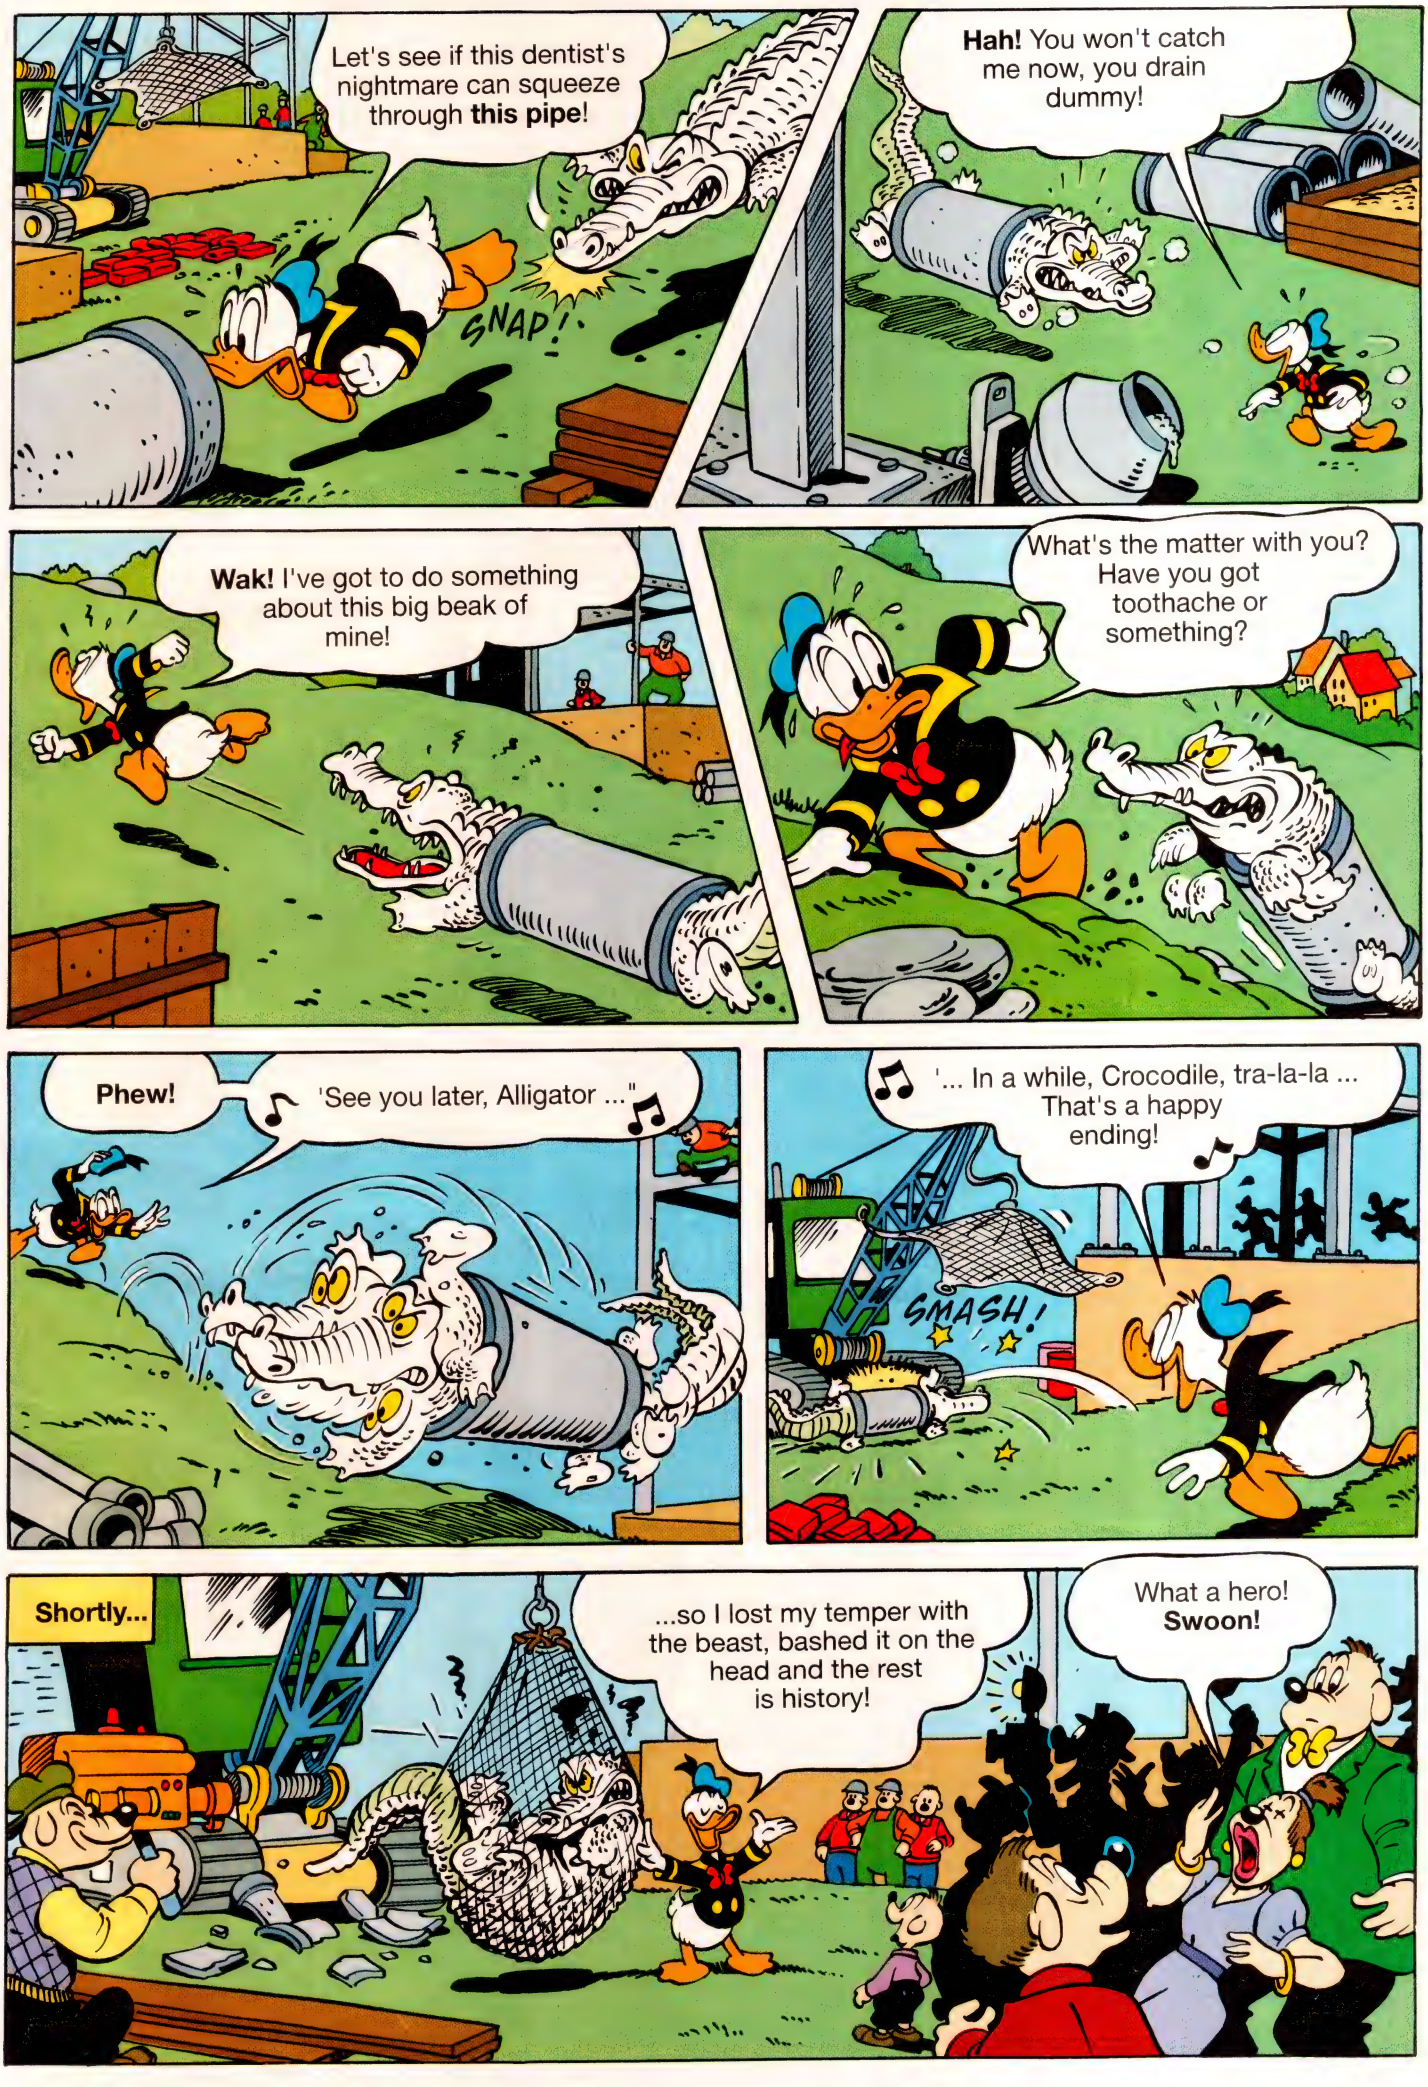
The trouble with this mouthy critter is he looks kinda hungry!
Ah! This may be just what I want!
Here, you look like you could use a toothpick!
Don't go away... I'll be right back with the police...and the army and navy!
THWASH!
WAK! Out of the frying pan into the fire!
SCREECH!
KERANNG!
I'M A GONER!
It's a miracle! I'm still alive!
(Gasp!) But probably not for long!
Officer! I've just escaped from a mutant albino alligator!
Oh, yeah? This better be good, pal, 'cause I don't like tall stories!



Shortly...
It was a big as a dinosaur - honest it was!
You know, duck, if we don't find it you'll be sweeping the jail for the rest of your life!
Look! There's the log I used to jam its jaws open!
Wow-ee! Just look at that monster molar!
You believe me? Ok - excuse me while I panic and vacate this underground lunch box!
Sorry mister, it's women, children and cops first!
So much for 'Duckburg's Bravest'!
That afternoon...
(GASP!)
DUCK DICES WITH DEATH! CLOSE ESCAPE WITH MUTANT ALBINO ALLIGATOR IN CITY DRAIN!
I've made the headlines... but I'm no nearer joining the Liars' Club!
I know! I'll tell the club it was all a lie and I fooled the police and the newspapers!

And so...
Wow! This place is sure to impress Marmaduke!
It's a great honour to welcome a liar of your calibre into our posh club, Mr. Duck!
DUCKBURG GAZETTE - SPECIAL EDITION
Sorry about the noise, we've been having some problems with the drains lately!
(GULP!)
CLANG!
(SHRIEK!) THERE'S A MONSTER DOWN HERE!
(Chortle!) It looks like that workman wants to get into the Liars' Club, too!
Yeaagh!
Wak! Maybe it's time to join the Four Minute Milers' Club!
But if there really is an albino alligator...then that means...
THE LIARS CLUB
Looks like I won't have to worry about finding a Club for tonight! I'll probably be eaten first!
Let me go you old walrus!
It's you that monster's after! And by the way, you've just been chucked out of this club!



Let's see if this dentist's nightmare can squeeze through this pipe!
SNAP!
Hah! You won't catch me now, you drain dummy!
Wak! I've got to do something about this big beak of mine!
What's the matter with you? Have you got toothache or something?
Phew!
'See you later, Alligator ..."
'... In a while, Crocodile, tra-la-la ... That's a happy ending!
SMASH!
Shortly...
...so I lost my temper with the beast, bashed it on the head and the rest is history!
What a hero! Swoon!

Soon...
(Sigh!) Now I'm back to the old problem of finding a club to join within the next hour!
DUCKBURG ZOO
Hi! I'm Dutch Duggan, Chairman of the Adventurers' Club!
Our club would be proud to welcome a man who overcame an alligator single-handed!
Thank you! How soon can I join?
That evening, at the Adventurers' Club...
What a guy! I couldn't have handled that reptile single-handed!
It was nothing really!
Then Donald is obviously the companion I need for an oil survey in Outer Patchoulistan!
One of our expeditions disappeared there last year! It's those pygmy head-hunters!
But that adds to the excitement! Along with the wild animals, volcanoes, poisonous scorpions!
Definitely the adventure of a lifetime! I envy Donald!
Donald?
Do you know where Mr Duck went?
I'm not sure, Sir! Is there a place called 'The Invisible Men's Club'? Mr. Duck was asking for it when he ran out from here!

TIME FOR A BIG CLEAN-UP!

AN EASY GUIDE TO HOW POLLUTION WORKS

THESE GASES ARE POISONING YOUR WORLD!

Every day we blast huge quantities of industrial smoke and carbon monoxide from car exhausts into the air we breathe. These gases endanger our health, kill our forests and destroy the ozone layer. Another result of this pollution is to cause weather pattern changes. So - everyone talks about pollution, and about its effect on the weather, but what's it all mean? To help you find out, Mickey has prepared this brief guide to the way air pollution affects our environment ...

YOU AND YOUR ENVIRONMENT

Consultant scientist: Professor Primus von Quack

What is the ozone, and are there really holes in the ozone layer?

Ozone is actually a gas. On the edge of space there's a layer of ozone. It is vital it should be preserved, because it acts as a shield against the sun's dangerous ultraviolet rays that would otherwise constantly bombard our Earth.

Certain gases, called chlorofluorocarbons (CFCs) , are used in some household products and appliances (such as fridges). CFCs attack this protective layer and systematically destroy the ozone. In the end they actually make a hole in it, letting ultraviolet rays through.

Is it likely to get any worse?

The damage will continue to increase so long as we continue to attack the ozone layer with CFCs, unfiltered car exhaust fumes, chemical pollutants, etc. Once holes are made in the ozone layer they can't be repaired.

How you can help: Don't buy things that contain CFCs, such as certain types of burger cartons, some aerosol sprays and cleaning products. Always look for the 'ozone friendly' or 'CFC free' signs!

WHAT IS THE GREENHOUSE EFFECT?

When we burn something e.g. petrol in a car, fuel in a factory or fuel for just keeping warm - we create carbon dioxide ($CO_2$). $CO_2$ has the same effect as glass in a greenhouse. It absorbs the sun and warms up the air. So the temperature on Earth goes up slowly. This is called the greenhouse effect.

If the greenhouse effect persists it could melt the ice at the Poles and the increased water would raise the level of the sea to cover some of the Earth's land.

ENVIRONMENT DETECTIVE
HOW'S THE AIR IN YOUR CITY?

If the air in a city becomes particularly polluted, you get what is called an "inverted weather situation". The air on the ground is then colder than the upper air, and the pollution in the air no longer rises, but hangs around for you to breathe in. Because water and air behave similarly, you can prove this with the following experiment.

- Fill a glass with warm water and make it turn cloudy by adding a drop of water colour paint.
- Cover the glass with a saucer and carefully put it into the glass bowl, filled with cold water.
- Remove the saucer laterally i.e. sideways.

What will happen is that the coloured (warm) water will spread and start to rise.

For this experiment you need:
A large glass bowl, a drinking glass, a saucer and some watercolour paint.

Now try it this way ...

- Fill the drinking glass with cold water and make it cloudy with paint.
- Repeat the first experiment. Fill the glass bowl with cold water, the same as in the first experiment.

What happens now is that the cloudy water will remain in the glass.

- Which proves ...

Warm water is lighter than cold water and it rises. Cold water does not rise. So because air behaves in exactly the same way, in an inverse weather situation the pollution (represented in this experiment by the paint in the water) remains at ground level in the city.

THE NEPHEWS WORK OUT HOW...
...THE GREENHOUSE EFFECT WORKS

For this experiment you need:
a solid bowl, some Clingfilm and a thermometer.

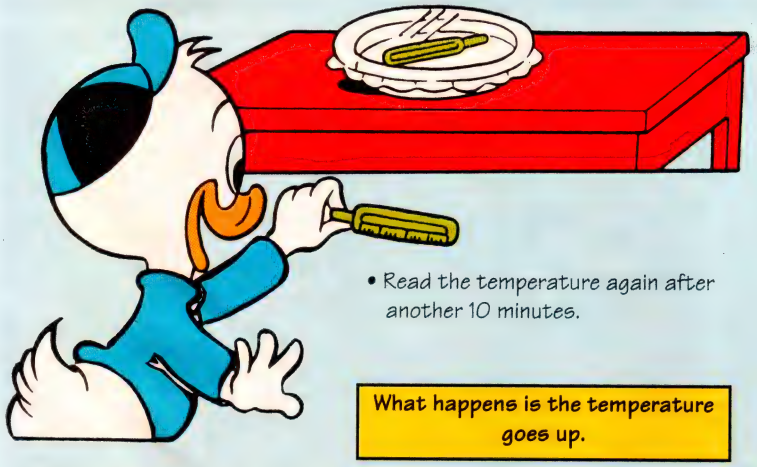
HOW IT'S DONE

- Put the thermometer in the bowl and stand it in the sun.
- Read the temperature after 10 minutes.



- Now put the Clingfilm over the bowl with the thermometer in it.
- Read the temperature again after another 10 minutes.

What happens is the temperature goes up.

Which proves:
In the second part of the experiment, the sun's warmth can get into the bowl but it can't get out. The CO2 in our air works like the Clingfilm over the bowl - and so it heats up our Earth.

WILD WILLY'S GOT IT WRONG!

If we make more holes in the ozone layer, Willy, you'll get blown out of that deckchair by hurricanes!

BEAGLE BOYS

"...tied to the Mayor's desk wearing those very same handcuffs!"
Ha, ha, ha! The Commissioner got his just reward!
That's not all, folks!
The Commissioner's gonna have a tough time getting out of them cuffs 'cause after we cuffed him, we took away the key!
Bravo! Well done, Brats!
Meanwhile...
What a humiliatin' experience! (Sigh!) Lucky for us the Brats are in school so they can't see us like this!
Come join the festivities!
...for they're such jolly good fellas...!

We're celebrating our own Golden Handcuffs award ceremony! He, he! The Brats put 'em on the Commissioner personally!
